

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

COLONEL BRENT W. WRIGHT

Colonel Brent Wright is the Vice Commander of the 138th Fighter Wing, Tulsa Air National Guard Base, Oklahoma. As the vice commander, he assists the wing commander in the organization, training and deployment of the second largest combat coded Air National Guard fighter wing, consisting of nearly 1200 Airmen. The wing is home to the multi-role F-16 Viper, assigned to the 125th Fighter Squadron, which flies more than 2600 sorties and 4000 hours per year. The wing also maintains Detachment 1 at Ellington Field, Texas, executing the Aerospace Control Alert mission. Col Wright assists the wing commander with providing the governor with personnel and equipment to meet state emergencies, national emergencies and on-going force requirements. He also serves as the Director of the Governor's Task Force to ensure a successful mission change to the F-35A Lightning II.

Colonel Wright was born in Enid, Oklahoma. He began his career in April 1989 as an Infantryman with the 45th Infantry Brigade. He received a direct commission into the Army's Judge Advocate General's Corps. He transferred to the Air Force Judge Advocate General's Corp and subsequently became a line officer. He served in many overseas peacetime and contingency deployments to include Operations JOINT FORGE, NORTHERN WATCH and IRAQI FREEDOM. Prior to his current position, he was the Commander of the 138th Mission Support Group.

Colonel Wright practiced law prior to fulltime employment with the Oklahoma National Guard. He also maintains a passive partnership in a registered investment advisor firm located in Tulsa, Okla.
